2012 marks the reuniting of Crispell, Drake and Fields, who first played together fifteen years ago. The German bassist Landfermann joins them to recreate the instrumentation of the Scott Fields Ensemble's Five Frozen Eggs (scheduled for Clean Feed reissue 2012), which featured Crispell, Drake, Fields and bassist Hans Sturm.

This quartet plays material from that recording as well as new compositions Fields has written for this group. The Crispell/Fields duo plays compositions by both musicians. Crispell also appears on the early Fields' releases 48 Motives and Sonotropism and Drake also appears on the 1999 double trio recording dénuement (reissued by Clean Feed in 2007).
